

The Human Heart

What is it and all about?

Well, we know for sure that it starts out with the anatomy of a muscular-organ that by rhythmic-contraction circulates the flow of Blood throughout our bodies system yet, more importantly it can be the character of the innermost-being of ↳ feelings towards one another of which ↳ distinguishes the intellectual nature of ones
↳ Moral-Courage & Compassion ↳

We the human-species were blessed ↳ with the ability to be able to use our brain to think intelligently above all other species < and that is why we benefit from what we have today. You see, we live our lives through a world of highly-developed cutting-edge technology, thus enjoying ☺ the comfort and convenience of our everyday-captivated Life-style, However from the nineteenth turn of the century back in time ☺ was quite different wasn't it? Would you like to have been living in that period of time instead of today's? I don't think so and I wouldn't think you would either, especially if you would have to give up your comfortable pragmatic way of life ☺ to be there. Sometimes facing the truth in the comfort of our everyday life-style can be a little intimidating to us, however the fact is, we the human-species have always caused and created our own cataclysmal fate, because of power, greed, ignorance, and hate and it hasn't changed only the period of time we live in has. Every the human-life has the same thing in common and that is no matter who or what our status -- affluent or destitute, the anatomy part of our Heart ♥ will sooner or later fail us; it's inevitable, thus concluding the final-closure in the way we chose or had to live and think. If we could just use our common-sense to realize that NOTHING can be more important and valuable than to treat each other with Respect, we could then enjoy each other's cultures in a world filled full of peace, harmony and prosperity for all, instead of a world filled full of Conflict of Wars, the Argumentative War of Words and the Hardship from Failures all because of what Power, Greed, Ignorance and Hate's influence does to one another. More importantly, if we could just Understand and Realize that by Choosing to think from the Integrity of our Hearts ♥ instead of without it, it would then become the essence of our innermost being of the most valuable possession that we would or could ever own in our -- lifetime -- Chosen -- by us that's -- Infinitely † Blessed ↳ by God. With that said and using our common sense,

How could we not believe?

in a or the (devil) ↳ when we have witnessed so much (evil) from our past and present history ↳ in this world we've lived? and how could we not ↳ believe? In an all Loving God when we can behold the miraculous way all living things are held and put together? A person can have a Good-Heart ♥ yet, think the wrong way then have regretful ☹ things happen to them however, the person ↳ whom strictly chooses to think with an ignorant bad-Heart ↳ can cross over that thin-line to becoming an (evil-person) ↳ thus being an instrumental product and tool of and for the (devil) therefore, wouldn't or couldn't believe or understand the meaning and purpose of this essay.
