

“To be or not to be  that is the question”

Through my own journey's experience, I came to realized that there are only two ways of thinking to the journey through life and that is, “the Mind that controls the Heart” (if there is one) or “the Heart that controls the Mind” (if there is one). In either case, there is a distinct difference between the two chosen ways of thinking and that is the one that is genuinely sincere with one's own character or the other that isn't, never the less, it's the Integrity of the Heart that cleanses the Mind into thinking honorably.

The Mind that controls the Heart is a Heart deprived of its Mind, but the Heart that controls the Mind is a Mind harmoniously bestowed with the continuity of the Heart.

For humanities sake, Integrity is the essence of everything that is of Right over Wrong to Good over Bad thinking. In peril, review the reality of the world around us and realize that it is the Heart of Integrity thinking that is direly missing in and from it!

With Wisdom, the Integrity of choice chooses to be Honest and Sincere with one's own character in the way one wants others to know and perceive it and that can only come from the Integrity of the Heart that controls the Mind of Honorable thinking.

The perception of the Mind that is Untrue is the awareness of the Heart that is True to be able to realize the difference between “To be or not to be” for the answer yet to see.

A Mind without Integrity is a Mind without Heart that cares less for anything other than one's own self absorbed coveted interest and as a rule, influenced by Power, Greed, Ignorance and Hate -- throughout humanity -- throughout our world.

As titled, “To be or not to be  that is the question” which way did you choose “To be or not to be” in life? The truth lies within you to realize the difference and then earnestly answer that question conclusively and decisively if it is, will, was or not to be.

“ The Heart of the Mind is the Soul of the Heart is the Mind of Integrity Thinking ”
