

Web of Deceit

If you have no integrity in whatever you say or do in life, you have then stepped into the quicksand you've chosen to live by striped from the essence of honor into a dishonorable foundation of lies, deception, deceit, falseness, fraud and dishonesty -- that will end up biting you in the you know what.

Review the world around you and witness the effects it has on you and your family just struggling to make ends meet day by day with the bare essentials, while through unfair proportions, the rich continue to get richer by knowingly sacrificing your futures promise. Read what the Declaration of Independence says. "We hold these truths to be self evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights that among these are life liberty and the pursuit of happiness". Question, do you feel secure with your rights consent by the governed, today?

The U.S. government, once crafted as a system that would serve the interests of the people, has devolved into a system of plutocracy where corporations control both the government and the people.

When the corporations run a nation, that nation has no real future, because corporations only think in terms of the next quarter, not the next generation. The plutocracy of this essay, is as follows,

Power breeds --- supremacy, dominance, reign, rule and control through the plutocracy of wealth.

Greed breeds --- gluttony, covetousness, voracity, insatiability, and the self-indulgence for wealth.

Ignorance breeds --- lack of knowledge or education and the unawareness of something, often of importance like reelecting our self-indulging bureaucrats back into office without accountability.

Hate Breeds --- a dislike for somebody or something intensely, often in a way that evokes feelings of anger, outrage, fury, hostility, or animosity towards one another leading to conflicts and wars.

Integrity breeds --- the quality of possessing and steadfastly adhering to high moral principles or professional standards --- without compromising them! It already understands its true worth to be the wealthiest long-term investment that will ultimately pay off with an eternal future with God. A return on investment (ROI) is a measure of ability to use its assets to generate value from its principles, both in short or long term invested risks. In other words, know and understand your portfolio. Essentially, this is the (Logical Rudimentary Thesis) of this essay. Integrity is set in a foundation of gold, while a (Web of Deceit) is set in a foundation of quicksand -- resulting in a --- sub-prime meltdown to hell.
